In 1974, the Columbus and Greenville Railway was organized to obtain track from the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad (IC). Operation began by the CAGY on October 29, 1975. The CAGY was then acquired by Genesee & Wyoming Inc. in 2008. The CAGY operates between Greenville, MS and Greenwood, MS, Columbus proper and then 25 miles of trackage rights from the KCS, which runs from Columbus, MS to West Point, MS. The LXVR (Luxapalila Valley Railroad) was acquired by Genesee & Wyoming Inc. in 2008, which operates from Columbus, MS to Belk, AL. The CAGY and LXVR operate out of the same office in Columbus, MS.
